Reporting questionnaire

Gender equality indicator 1: Gender composition of workforce

This indicator seeks information about the gender composition of relevant employers in a standardised format, to enable the aggregation of data across and within industries. The aggregated data in your workplace profile assists relevant employers in understanding the characteristics of their workforce, including in relation to occupational segregation, the position of women and men in management within their industry or sector, and patterns of potentially insecure employment.

NB. IMPORTANT:

- References to the Act mean the Workplace Gender Equality Act 2012.
- A formal 'policy' and/or 'formal strategy' in this questionnaire refers to formal policies and/or strategies that are either standalone or contained within another formal policy/formal strategy.
- Data provided in this reporting questionnaire covers the TOTAL reporting period from 1 April 2019 to 31 March 2020. (This differs from the workplace profile data which is taken at a point-in-time during the reporting period).
- Answers need to reflect ALL organisations covered in this report.

- Leadership accountability
- Measurement & reporting
- Leader & manager capability
- Talent pipeline
- Gender inclusive culture

Gender equality indicator 2: Gender composition of governing bodies

Gender composition of governing bodies is an indicator of gender equality at the highest level of organisational leadership and decision-making. This gender equality indicator seeks information on the representation of women and men on governing bodies. The term “governing body” in relation to a relevant employer is broad and depends on the nature of your organisation. It can mean the board of directors, trustees, committee of management, council or other governing authority of the employer.

- 2. The organisation(s) you are reporting on will have a governing body. In the Act, governing body is defined as “the board of directors, trustees, committee of management, council or other governing authority of the employer”. This question relates to the highest governing body for your Australian entity, even if it is located overseas.

2.1 Please answer the following questions relating to each governing body covered in this report.

Note: If this report covers more than one organisation, the questions below will be repeated for each organisation before proceeding to question 2.2.

If your organisation's governing body is the same as your parent entity's, you will need to add your organisation's name BUT the numerical details of your parent entity's governing body.

4.2 If your organisation would like to provide additional information relating to gender equality indicator 3, please do so below:

RAC has a formal Gender Equity Working Group (GEWG), with a Group Executive being the primary stakeholder.

The GEWG is focusing on enhancing gender equity in remuneration and compensation.

Gender equality indicator 4: Flexible working and support for employees with family and caring responsibilities

This indicator will enable the collection and use of information from relevant employers about the availability and utility of employment terms, conditions and practices relating to flexible working arrangements for employees and to working arrangements supporting employees with family or caring responsibilities. One aim of this indicator is to improve the capacity of women and men to combine paid work and family or caring responsibilities through such arrangements. The achievement of this goal is fundamental to gender equality and to maximising Australia's skilled workforce.

5. A "PRIMARY CARER" is the member of a couple or a single carer, REGARDLESS OF GENDER, identified as having greater responsibility for the day-to-day care of a child.

18. If your organisation has introduced any outstanding initiatives that have resulted in improved gender equality in your workplace, please tell us about them.

(As with all questions in this questionnaire, information you provide here will appear in your public report.)

RAC has conducted pay audits since 2015 to ensure equal pay for like-for-like roles. The audits are now conducted bi-annually to ensure that any pay gaps identified are corrected at an accelerated rate. The percentage of roles requiring review has dropped significantly since the audits commenced in 2015.

The Gender Diversity stream is a subset of the RAC Diversity Strategy. The Gender Equity Working Group (GEWG) leads and coordinates activity within this stream that supports RAC in achieving its gender equality objectives. It is the mission of the GEWG to achieve gender equality in all areas of RAC. The GEWG aims to achieve this through the implementation of the Gender Diversity Action Plan. With a focus being on Leadership Accountability, Measurement & Reporting, Leader & Manager Accountability, and Gender Inclusive Culture.

Our revised paid parental leave entitlements continue to be in operation after successfully being implemented in 2018 (these being 16 weeks paid leave for primary caregivers, previously varying from 12-16 weeks dependent on an employee's length of service) and 4 weeks paid leave for non-primary caregivers, previously being 1 week).

Implementation of a formal flexible work policy and accompanying processing channels has also continued after initial implementation in early 2019. During the COVID-19 crisis RAC has had a significant uptake in flexible working arrangements for employees with over 1000 employees working from home at the peak of the crisis while still being able to deliver services effectively to members.

Also, our diversity and inclusion section within our organisation's intranet continues to update our workforce on advancements and progress in this space. Within this section is an area dedicated to Gender Equity, which communicates the GEWG terms of reference objectives, links to WGEA, the business case for Gender Equity and other relevant information and stories.

RAC has also progressed actions to accelerate and continue to grow our female talent pipeline, through ensuring that our development programs have a 50/50 split for females and males. Our talent programs include:

- 'Leadership Essentials': For Supervisors and Managers.
- 'Leading for our Future': For Leaders
- 'Leading the Business': For General Managers and Senior Leaders.

Whilst our Women's Development Program 'Empower' was created to develop high potential emerging female leaders. This program runs for eight months and includes development modules, assessment tools, guest speakers, and mentoring.

Also, our RAC Group Executive team review key performance indicators for gender equity on a quarterly basis, including:

- Percentage of females in senior roles.
- Percentage of female leader promotions.
- 50/50 representation of females on development programs and leadership forums.

RAC also continues to champion and celebrate International Women's Day (IWD) - not only by celebrating and promoting the event within the organisation, but also by creating an internal awards event that requires nominations from those within the business for candidates. There are three awards that recognise women within the business - these awards being for leadership, community service, and outstanding service to members. The three winners are awarded through attending the Australian Women's Leadership Symposium for their development. Also included in the IWD celebrations is a presentation by a prominent female guest speaker; specifically selected to champion women in leadership. Rebecca Tomkinson (Chief Executive Officer of the Royal Flying Doctor Service of Western Australia) was our guest speaker for 2020.

Gender composition proportions in your workplace

Important notes:

1. Proportions are based on the data contained in your workplace profile and reporting questionnaire.
2. Some proportion calculations will not display until you press Submit at step 6 on the reporting page in the portal. When your CEO signs off the report prior to it being submitted, it is on the basis that the proportions will only reflect the data contained in the report.
3. If any changes are made to your report after it has been submitted, the proportions calculations will be refreshed and reflect the changes after you have pressed Re-submit at step 6 on the reporting page.
