

Answers

1. Stop
2. It is important all drivers adjust by travelling safely under the limit, rather than right on it.
3. Ideas may include - If the road is busy, If road conditions are poor, If visibility is poor, If there are pedestrians and cyclists.
4. Braking distance.
5. Combination of reaction time and braking distance.
6. Main Roads WA is the agency responsible for determining our speed limits, and do so based on a number of factors including but not limited to Australian Standards, transport efficiency, urban density and road design.
7. 110 km/h zones.
8. Personal response.
9. Ideas may include - slow down if you are the driver, as a passenger be proactive to ensure the car is travelling at a safe speed, drive with proper space between you and the car in front, etc.

RAC Community Education
communityeducation@rac.com.au