

Answers

Fatal factors on the road - Seat belts

1. 50%.
2. Ideas may include - prevents you from being thrown about inside the car, striking against hard surfaces, hitting other occupants or being thrown out of the car, etc.
3. Ideas may include - it is tight and comfortable with buckle by the side, the sash is placed over your middle shoulder and diagonally across the chest, the webbing has no twists or knots or adjustable top mounting should be at the level with your ear, no doubling up.
4. 1971.
5. You must replace the seat belt in your car if it is worn, frayed, faded or damaged, etc.
6. False.
7. All children under the age of seven need to be restrained in an approved child car restraint.
8. Seat belts may not be suitable for younger children and there are laws to ensure they are safely restrained in a vehicle.
9. Ideas may include - ensure everyone has their seat belt on, refuse double-up use, ensure seat belts are in a good condition, etc.

Contact us at schooleducation@rac.com.au

RAC's School Education is committed to delivering road safety education in Western Australia. We have designed programs to keep students safe on the roads by influencing risk reduction, increasing resilience and encouraging responsible behaviour. We deliver free interactive road safety workshops in schools and a youth road trauma awareness event in metropolitan Perth (RAC bstreetsmart) and regional WA (Project Road Smart).

For the better