

Personal Finance

RAC Finance target market determination

This target market determination (TMD) is required under section 994B of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and seeks to offer consumers, distributors, and staff with an understanding of the class of consumers for which this product has been designed (target market), having regard to the objectives, financial situation and needs of the target market. It forms part of RAC Finance's design and distribution arrangements for the product.

In this document the term "RAC Finance", refers to the issuer of the loan products, RAC Finance Limited ABN 77 009 066 862 Australian Credit Licence 387972.

This document is not to be treated as a full summary of the product's terms and conditions and does not take into account any person's individual objectives, financial situation or needs and is not the provision of financial advice. The customer must refer to RAC Finance's loans terms and conditions and any supplementary documents such as the loan contract and schedule which outline additional terms and conditions when deciding about this product.

RAC Finance personal finance product

RAC Finance's personal finance products provide:

- » Personal loans for regulated consumer credit to individuals;

This TMD sets out the target market for:

- » Secured personal loans; and
- » Unsecured personal loans

This is set out in the Appendix to this document.

Distribution

Who can distribute this product

This product is distributed by RAC Finance and its nominated group representative RAC Distribution Pty Ltd (RAC) through:

Conditions and restrictions on distribution

Only the named representatives are authorised to distribute RAC Finance's personal finance products as they understand the target market the product is designed and intended for and are trained and competent in the relevant acceptance criteria for each product.

Reviewing the TMD

Review date: 1 November 2023

Review period: RAC Finance will review this TMD at least every 12 months from the review date to ensure it remains appropriate.

RAC Finance will also review this TMD following the occurrence of any event or circumstance that should arise (called a 'review trigger') suggesting the TMD is no longer appropriate. This may include (but not limited to) events such as:

- » A change to the key product attribute or eligibility criteria that impacts the suitability of the product for the target market;
- » The proportion of individuals to which the loan products are provided which are outside the target market;
- » Regulatory change or use of product intervention power that impacts this product or target market for the product;
- » Material or unexpectedly high number of customer complaints indicating the product is no longer suitable to the target market;
- » The product is not being distributed in accordance with this TMD;
- » Nature of material feedback from member satisfaction surveys indicating the product is no longer suitable to the target market;
- » Review outcomes from analysis of business data that indicates actual or potential harm or financial loss such as personal loan approval and default rates that indicates that the product is no longer suitable to the target market; and
- » We have determined that a significant dealing has occurred.

The information RAC Finance requires from the distributor to identify a review trigger or circumstance that would reasonably suggest that the TMD is no longer appropriate, is included in the reporting requirements below.

For the better

Reporting

Distributors must record all complaints received about the product design, product availability and distribution of this product and report this information as soon as practicable (but in any case within 10 business days of the end of each quarter).

If applicable, there may be additional obligations when responding to complaints under the distributor's appointment as a representative of RAC Finance.

Distributors are obligated to report to RAC Finance as soon as practicable if they become aware of a matter that would give rise to a 'review trigger' or a circumstance that would reasonably suggest that the TMD is no longer appropriate.

Also, distributors are to provide RAC Finance sales data and other information required in accordance with the distribution arrangements and service level agreements for the loan product.
