Ireland

TAKING A SELF-DRIVE HOLIDAY

Ireland is a country known for its everlasting rural landscapes and wide open spaces, also hosting some of the world's most spectacular ancient castles, historic towns, heritage houses, fantastic pubs and vibrant cities. Ireland weaves its magic into your very heart and soul, as you drive to Galway Bay and the 'Cliffs of Moher' through County Clare (Shannon) to Cork and east to Waterford and Wicklow.

The capital Dublin is a lively place with excellent shopping. Drive just outside Dublin, where there are quaint little villages, rolling green hills as far as the eye can see and a friendly pub culture which welcomes travellers and encourages you to get to know the locals.

No trip to Ireland is complete without visiting the majestic region of Kerry with the 'Ring of Kerry' the 'Dingle Peninsula' and the shining Lakes of Killarney hot on the list of things to see.

Renting A Car

IN IRELAND

When selecting a rental vehicle, take into consideration where you will be travelling, how many people will be travelling in the vehicle, luggage size and the kind of driving you intend to do. DriveAway Holidays offers a vast range of vehicles from small economy sizes to larger full-sized cars, 4WDs, convertibles and luxury vehicles. The ACRISS system bellow will help you find a car that suits your needs. This is a internationally recognized code which will ensure you get the same standard of vehicle wherever you rent.

Do I need a Credit card?

Yes. A credit card will be needed when collecting, which will be used for a security bond. The deposit is generally the insurance excess of the rental car which depends on the category of vehicle you have booked and the rate type.

Can I collect my rental car in one Irish city and drop it off in another?

One way rentals are possible in Ireland between major cities. Minimum durations and one way fees will apply.

Collecting at an Airport in Ireland

At most airports you will find your rental company has a desk in the arrivals hall, with the rental cars being located within walking distance.

Insurance

EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW...

Irish law requires all vehicles to have compulsory third party (CTP) injury insurance, although your car rental supplier should already have comprehensive insurance covering their cars. In the case of an accident it must be reported to the insurance provider immediately and an excess will be due.

Car Rental Companies in Ireland will normally include:

- > Third Party Insurance: Compulsory insurance and will be included in your car hire price. This covers you for other people's injury and damage to their vehicle.
- > Collision Damage Waiver (CDW): This limits your financial liability for damage to the rented vehicle and is normally included in prepaid car hire prices. Rentals are normally subject to liability excess, which can be reduced at the time you collect your rental car or by taking out DriveAway Hire Car Refund Protection.
- > Theft and Loss Cover: This limits your financial liability for the loss or theft of the rented vehicle and is generally included in the prepaid car rental price.
- > Fire and Liability: Limits your financial liability for bodily injury or death and is normally included in the prepaid car hire price.
- > Personal Accident Insurance: This covers the driver for personal injuries and is generally not included in your car rental rate. It is considered an optional extra that you can take out upon collection of the car.

DriveAway Hire Car Excess Refund Protection

When renting a vehicle, the rental rates include basic insurance, however, in the event that the vehicle is stolen or accidentally damaged, there is usually an excess amount which the driver is liable to pay to the rental company. To avoid any unexpected costs opt for DriveAway Hire Car Excess Refund Protection which will offer a reimbursement for the supplier's damage and theft excess to a maximum for AU$5,000. Simply add this onto your car rental booking prior to departure and you could save thousands of dollars in the long run! To find out more, simply call DriveAway Holidays on 1300 363 500 or visit the DriveAway website.

Driving

IN IRELAND

- Driving in Ireland is on the left-hand side of the road and seat belts must be worn at all times in the front and back of the vehicle.
- Motorcyclists and their passengers must wear helmets.
- There are very strict laws on drinking and driving and those found to be contravening these laws will be heavily penalised. Drive with blood alcohol level of over 0.08% and you could face imprisonment. So don't drink and drive.
- In both the Republic and Northern Ireland, speed limits are 30mph/50kph in built-up areas, 60mph/100kph on the open road and 100mph/110kph on the motorway
- Children under 12 cannot ride in the front seat.
- Horns are not to be used between 11.30pm and 7.00am.
- Do not use your mobile phone when driving – it is illegal and unsafe.
- Cars already on a roundabout always have the right of way. At unmarked crossings, give way to vehicles approaching from the right.
- In the Republic of Ireland yellow signs with black markings will give instructions at marked crossings - a graphic approximation of the layout with thick lines denoting the right of way, thinner lines representing roads that have

Min & Max Age Requirements

Min Driving Age: Generally 25 years but some suppliers may allow younger drivers for an additional fee.

Young Driver's Surcharge: Drivers under 25 years may be charged an additional fee.

Max Driving Age: There is no maximum driving age in Ireland with most car rental suppliers; however the max driving age for some car hire companies is 75 years. In these cases, aged drivers may be required to hold a letter from their GP stating they are healthy and fit to drive. Check with DriveAway Holidays for further details.

Road Tolls and E-Tags

There are 11 toll roads in Ireland. Expect to pay anywhere from €1.00 to $€2.70 for tolls, so keep some spare change handy on the major routes. The Dublin M50 toll is cash free. A picture of your number plate will be read and you will have until 8pm the following day to pay online.

License Requirements

Australian drivers do not require an international driver's license to drive in the Republic and Northern Ireland. Car rental companies will require that drivers have held a full license for at least one year.

Lough Derg Drive, Co. Clare

This is one of Ireland's less travelled routes, a 95-mile circuit around the largest lake of the River Shannon. The drive passes an assortment of charming marina villages and scenic delights along the way. Travel through twin towns Ballina and Killaloe at the southern tip of the lake, on to Scarriff Bay, then to Mount Shannon, one of the busiest yachting centres on Lough Derg. Stop by at Portumna at the very north of the lake to see the palatial 17th Century castle that overlooks the lake.

From there, head to the lovely village of Terryglass and then south towards the fishing and boating centre of Dromineer. On the way to Nenagh, visit the castle remains that date back to 1217 and the demolished county gaol. From Nenagh, head west to Portroe for the best viewing points of the Lough Derg. Enjoy the final leg of the journey on the gentle road back to Ballina.

See the romantic ruins of Dunluce Castle near Bushmills, and drive on to Portrush and Portstewart, lively seaside resorts, then to the beautiful Bann Valley and market town of Ballymoney. Visit Mussenden Temple along by Castlerock towards Limavady, then take a walk on the remote beaches at Benone or Downhill. You can then travel on through the lovely Roe Valley, through Limavady and on to Londonderry, which is the only completely walled city in the British Isles.

Visiting Ireland

GUIDE TO STAYING SAFE

Stay Healthy

Your comprehensive travel insurance should cover any medical costs including medical evacuation, make sure that your insurance covers you for the whole time you'll be away and be clear on what is not included. The Australian Government has signed a reciprocal health care agreement with the Government of the Republic of Ireland that gives Australians access to emergency medical services but does not provide for any ongoing treatment of existing health conditions.

Ireland does have excellent health care; however you should plan the care of pre-existing conditions before you leave. Bring your medications in their original and clearly labelled containers with a declaration from your doctor describing your medical conditions and medicines needed. If you wear contacts or glasses, bring a spare pair or bring a copy of your prescription.

Pharmacies are known as 'chemist shops' and are found right across Ireland. To find a chemist in Ireland, look under 'Chemists- Pharmaceutical' in the local Golden Pages, or for Northern Ireland look under 'Chemist - Dispensing' in the local Yellow pages.

Stay Safe

Travelling in Ireland is not dangerous, but a level of caution should always be taken when touring in any foreign country. The majority of crimes tend to occur in the larger cities, such as Dublin, where tourists can be targeted for crimes such as bag snatching and pick-pocketing. The best advice is to keep your valuables close to your body and out of reach from potential thieves, avoid lonely streets out of hours and don't flash your wealth and make yourself an obvious target.

Car break-ins, theft, smash and grab and vandalism on tourists vehicles can occur, but can be prevented by keeping valuables or bags out of sight, securely locking cars or using off-street supervised parking. Car-jacking in Ireland is still very rare. As a precaution lock your doors when driving in the larger towns, especially after dark.

Northern Ireland is currently as safe as the Republic of Ireland; however there are areas where the sectarian divide is still prominent, particularly in some parts of Belfast. Try to avoid Northern Ireland around 12 July, which is the climax of the Orange marching season, and has been known to bring tension and disruption.

In the unlikely event of theft or loss, be sure to inform all your credit card companies as soon as you discover your wallet has been lost or stolen. Most credit card companies have toll free numbers to call if your cards are lost or stolen, and they may be able to issue an emergency replacement card or wire you an immediate cash advance.

Visiting Ireland

MONEY MATTERS

Currency

Republic of Ireland

The Euro is the local currency of the Republic of Ireland. EURO (€) = 100 cents. Notes are in denominations of €500, 200, 100, 50, 20, 10 and 5. Coins are in denominations of €2 and €1, and 50, 20, 10, 5, 2 and 1 cents.

Northern Ireland

Sterling is the local currency of Northern Ireland. One Pound Sterling (£) = 100 pence. Notes are in denominations of £50, 20, 10 and 5. Coins are in denominations of £2 and £1, and 50, 20, 10, 5, 2 and 1

Currency Exchange

Available in airports, banks and bureaux de change.

ATMs

ATMs (automatic teller machines) are located at most banks and accept most credit and debit cards.

Credit & Debit Cards

Any credit cards that bear the Visa, MasterCard or American Express symbol will be widely accepted in Ireland. Most ATMs allow cash withdrawals on major credit cards and internationally branded debit cards.

Travellers Cheques

Traveller's cheques are accepted throughout Ireland. To avoid additional exchange rate charges, it's best to take traveller's cheques in Euros or Pounds Sterling. Eurocheques can also be cashed in Ireland.

Banking Hours

Banks are open 10am to 4pm Monday to Wednesday and Friday, and 10am to 5pm on Thursday in the Republic of Ireland. In Northern Ireland bank hours are 9.30am to 5.30pm Monday to Friday.

Tax

Sales tax is called VAT (value-added tax) and is most often included in the price shown on goods. In the Republic of Ireland, the general rate of VAT is 21%, but there are rates of 13.5% for hotels, restaurants and car rentals. In Northern Ireland the VAT is 17.5% across the board.

Tipping

Tips of around 10-15% in restaurants and metered cabs are expected, unless it's already included in the total.
